Onderwerp: Investeringsgeschillenbeslechting in handelsverdragen met dhr. Gus van Harten

Agendapunt: Gesprek met dhr. Gus van Harten inzake investeringsgeschillenbeslechting in handelsverdragen

Gesprek met dhr. Gus van Harten, Associate Professor International Investment Law aan de Osgoode Hall Law School van York University in Toronto inzake investeringsgeschillenbeslechting (ISDS) in handelsverdragen.

Gus Van Harten joined the faculty in January 2008 and teaches Administrative Law, International Investment Law, and Governance of the International Financial System. He was previously on faculty at the London School of Economics where he taught Administrative Law, International Economic Law, International Commercial Arbitration, and Public International Law. His book, Investment Treaty Arbitration and Public Law (2007), presents a public law critique of investment treaty arbitration and proposes the establishment of an international investment court to ensure independence and accountability in the international adjudication of regulatory disputes between states and investors.
